

Need Insurance for your Electrathon Event? This is how to get it.....

Electrathon America has secured an insurance policy to cover Electrathon America Sanctioned events nationwide. Electrathon America pays the premiums for the policy, this allows events to buy into the policy for much less than it would cost on their own.

To get insurance follow these easy steps:

- Start early
- Read the minimum requirements below
- Determine the insurance requirements of your venue
- Complete the Electrathon America Sanctioning Form
- Fill out the Insurance application for your specific event
- Mail your payment and forms (must be received 15 business days before the certificates are required for the event)
- Enjoy your event!

Requirements:

- Events must be sanctioned by Electrathon America (requires filling out the EA Event Authorization Form)
- Applications and Fees must be received 15 business days prior to when the certificates are required.
- A diagram of the course layout is required for parking lot and street events and any other events not in a standard auto racetrack. Photographs may be mailed or emailed if required.
- Events held in parking lots or on the street will require some sort of positive barrier protection (tires or hay bales) and crowd control fencing (generally, orange plastic snow fence is acceptable) to prevent spectators from entering restricted areas or the course.
- Events at standard race tracks may not need diagrams and detailed information. Call the insurance agent to determine if this is a track known to the underwriter.
- Two waiver forms are required: One for every entrant to restricted areas, the other for minors who participate or enter restricted areas. These must be ordered more than 2 weeks prior to the event. Call K&K insurance at 1-800-553-8368 to have these forms mailed directly to you.
- All drivers must be at least 16 years of age.
- Each minor and his/her parent or guardian must complete a waiver.
- Funds must be received prior to issuing certificates of insurance
- Funds must be received prior to the event to prevent cancellation of the event coverage.
